

Ban Suk Jai Children's Home Newsletter January 2010

Christmas Fun!

We had a special Christmas because of you! A big thank you to all who helped to make Christmas for the children special. We so appreciate the time, effort and money that went into your thoughtfulness. The children received gifts that delighted their hearts and brought smiles to their little faces.

Christmas day was filled with yummy food, songs and an explosion of colored wrapping paper. Each child took turns opening their treasures and spent the rest of the day enjoying them. It was a delight to see them having fun with something that was just for them. We have been teaching the concept of sharing, but the principle of having personal ownership and taking good care of what is yours is something we are faithfully working on.

Unfortunately, we also experienced a sad time in the midst of such a joyous occasion. Daa, our nanny, got word from her family that her mother had passed away. She went for several days to take care of her family's affairs and had to miss our celebration of Jesus' birth. Please pray for her as she grieves her loss and the fact that she wasn't there to say good bye.

Happy New Year

In this new year, please remember us at BSJ. There is always a need for financial sponsors and prayer partners. If you would like to partner with us or know of someone who would, please don't hesitate to contact us. The investment has eternal rewards and makes a little someone very happy. Check out our website for more information, www.bansukjai.org.

Ban Suk Jai Children's Home Newsletter January 2010— Continued

Birthdays to Celebrate!

There always seems to be a birthday to celebrate here at BSJ. This month started off with a grand celebration of Isaac, who turned 5 and Daa, our wonderful nanny. We had special food, music and lots of play. It was a wonderful afternoon. Isaac wished himself a 'Happy Birthday' many times on this day....Happy Birthday to Isaac! He was thrilled that it was a day set aside for him.

Thanks for your prayers for Daa and her recent loss. She is doing much better and was blessed with our day of fun, especially since she missed our Christmas party.